

Amara Raja Energy & Mobility wins 'Great Place to Work' award

'Great Place To Work' acknowledges the company's excellence in providing a positive work environment to all employees. AR&M ranks 68th in the Best Companies to Work in India for 2024.

Tirupati, June 21: Amara Raja Energy & Mobility Limited (ARE&M), a comprehensive solutions provider in the Energy & Mobility space, is delighted to announce that it has been honored with the prestigious recognition of being certified as the Best Company to Work for in 2024. The company has achieved an impressive ranking of 68 in the renowned Best Companies to Work for in India (2024) list, according to a study conducted by 'The Great Place To Work' Institute. The company also features among the Best Workplace in Auto and Auto Components Industry.

The 'Great Place To Work' (GPTW) institute is globally recognized as an authority on workplace culture. This distinguished institute acknowledges organizations that excel in providing a positive work environment for their employees and each year, numerous companies participate in their comprehensive study. The certification and ranking bestowed upon ARE&M are the results of a rigorous two-step evaluation process that includes surveying employees and assessing the organization's practices.

ARE&M's foundation is built upon the belief that its employees are the driving force behind its success. The company has always prioritized providing a culture that empowers, energizes, and inspires every individual to reach their full potential, while ensuring their well-being. The certification and ranking received by the company serve as a testament to its unwavering commitment to creating endless opportunities for the employees to learn and grow.

"At Amara Raja Energy & Mobility, we are committed to cultivating a culture of growth and innovation across all levels of our diverse workforce. We strive to ensure that every employee feels valued, motivated and cared for in their well-being. This is a true testament of our people and culture as we competed with more than 2,000 companies, representing over 500,000 employees. This esteemed ranking and certification are a true validation of our efforts to positively impact the lives of our employees and the communities we serve." said Jaikrishna B, President - Group HR, Amara Raja.

ARE&M takes immense pride in this remarkable achievement and remains committed to continuously enhancing the well-being and satisfaction of the employees. The company extends its heartfelt gratitude to 'The Great Place To Work' institute for recognizing its efforts and bestowing this prestigious honor.

End of the Press Release

For media inquiries, please contact:
Brijesh Menon, Head Corporate Communications
Email: bjm@amararaja.com